PEOPLE'S ACADEMY SEND OUT CLASS OF 22

The big event of Commencement

Week at People's Academy was the graduation and dance held at the town hall on Wednesday evening,

June 14. The attendance surpassed the seating capacity and many were obliged to stand.

Prin. W. H. Hosmer presented the following prizes. The prizes given to the alumni to the girl and the boy writing the best essay were awarded to Aldelena Raymond and Wallace Peck, whose subjects were

The Price of Success and Hannibal.

The judges made the decision on the basis of originality.

A prize awarded each year by the Hon. T. C. Cheney for progress during the senior year was won by Mary

Russ.

A prize instituted this year by Levi

Munson to the student graduating from the commercial department with the best record was awarded to Mertie Sulham.

A prize made available by Dr.

George L. Bates to the pupil in the school who should submit the best definition of Americanism was won by Miss Addie Freer of the class of

'23, honorable mention being made of Faith Edmunds '22 and Paul Cornell

'23.

Prizes for the best work in Latin during the year were given to Arthur Brown, class III; Marguerite Margie, class IV; Ralph Graves, class V, and Mildred Stewart, class VI. These prizes were the gifts of Principal Hosmer.

Supt. C. D. Howe awarded the scholarship to the U. V. M. to Velma

Huntley and Herman Huntley.

Diplomas were presented to the graduating class by C. H. A. Stafford of the school board. Following the benediction pronounced by Rev.

E. E. Pender, the graduating class held an informal reception upon the stage. Following this dancing was indulged in until a late hour. Dunbar's orchestra from St. Johnsbury furnished excellent music for the occasion.

The graduates were: Frances

Marie Bates, Marjorie Bickford,

Evelyn Mary Camp, Evelyn Barbara

Eaton, Viola Faith Edmunds, Raymond Smith Gates, Porter Claude

Greene, Madeline Huse Hill, Leola

Alice Howard, Stewart Chase Hoyt,

Herman Tabor Huntley, Velma Flora

Huntley, Ralph Lloyd Patch, Willey

Wallace Peck, Aldelena Catherine

Raymond, Edith Leola Richardson,

Mary Olive Russ, Bernice Isabelle

Silloway, Mildred Hope Stewart,

Mertie Elozia Sulham, Chrystabel

Ellen Wallace and Carl Harold Wilborg.

The program was as follows:

Overture, "Jolly Robbers," Suppe, orchestra; processional, "Priest's March" from "Athalie," Mendelssohn, orchestra; invocation, Rev. G. E.

Goodliffe; music, "Minuet," Beeethoven-Branscombe, girls' chorus; oration with salutatory, Oil, Raymond Smith Gates; trombone solo, "A Dream," Bartlett, H. Guy Dunbar;

address, "The Fateful Hour," Prof.

R. B. Flint, Norwich University;

serenade, Drigo, orchestra; oration with valedictory, Public Calamity,

a Mighty Levee, Herman Tabor

Huntley; flute solo, selected, Mr.

Simanton; presentation of prizes,

Prin. W. H. Hosmer; presentation of diplomas, C. H. A. Stafford; benediction, Rev. E. E. Pender; triumphal march, "Aida," Verdi, orchestra. The music was by Dunbar's orchestra of St. Johnsbury.

Alumni Banquet

The banquet of the Alumni Association of People's Academy was held in the vestry of the Congregational Church with a record-breaking attendance, 250 being served.

Mason S. Stone of Montpelier, a former principal, was toastmaster.

Toasts were responded to by Principal Hosmer, Henry George '89 of Pasadena, Calif., Carrie Shaw Merriam '89 of Bellows Falls, Gertrude

Camp Puffer '88 of Richford, Clara

Brown Mills of Waitsfield, C. H. A.

Stafford, Maude Chaffee '02, Dr.

Hugh Tyndall '05 of Hoboken, N. J., and Harold Willborg, representing the class of 1922.

Mrs. Glee Morse Raymore '01 and Mertie Sulham '22 rendered vocal solos, while Eleanor Downey '19 rendered a piano solo.

Letters were read from B. L. Jennings, W. A. Beebe and E. E. Foster, the father of the Alumni Association.

It was a big boom for People's Academy. Much credit is due Mrs.

Laura Morse, president of the association, and her able committee for its success. There was more enthusiasm shown at the banquet this year than ever before.

Farm Bureau Picnic at Lake Eden,

Saturday, June 24

A special meeting of the Lamoille

County Farm Bureau Association will be held at Lake Eden next Saturday.

The meeting will take the form of a basket picnic with sports in the morning and a business meeting in the afternoon. J. A. Leach of Paw-let, member of the executive committee of the State Farm Bureau

Federation, will give an address.

Mr. Leach is a farmer and is worth hearing on the subject of Farm Bureau organization.

Death of Mrs. E. A. Draper

Mrs. E. A. Draper of this town died this (Wednesday) morning.

The funeral will be held Friday afternoon at two o'clock. An obituary will appear in this paper next week.

The Best Spellers

Result of Lamoille County Spelling

Contest at Hyde Park

The Lamoille county spelling contest was held at Hyde Park, Friday, June 16. Fifteen contestants took part, representing eight towns. Prin.

P. H. Martin of Hyde Park pronounced the words. Mrs. Stella Goddard, Miss Leila Waite and Miss Natalie Noyes acted as judges. A written test of 25 words, giving in sentences, was dictated, then came the oral tests.

Mildred Fortier of Morrisville, seventh grade, stood up the longest and was declared the winner.

Helen Vosburgh, seventh grade, of Elmore, was also declared a winner, so these two pupils are entitled to represent Lamoille county at the state spelling contest to be held in St. Johnsbury at the time of the State Teachers' Convention on October 12 and 13.

Helen Maloney, seventh grade, of Hyde Park stood third, and Evelyn

MacDonald, eighth grade, of Morrisville stood fourth. These two are entitled to attend the state contest as alternates.

The order in which the pupils went down and the word misspelled is as follows: Maude Tenney, eighth grade, Hyde Park, breathe; Minnie Spaulding, seventh grade, Elmore

Pond, arrest; Jennie Dodge, seventh grade, Johnson, absence; Pauline

Stiles, sixth grade, Johnson, liquor;

Gordon Woodard, eighth grade, Belvidere, courtesy; Leila Hood, sixth grade, Wolcott, physician; Frances

Thomas, fifth grade, Belvidere, procedure; Lula Hoisington, sixth grade,

Stowe, mischievous; Edith Holden, sixth grade, Stowe, vapor; Natalie Hawley, seventh grade, Jeffersonville, surgery; Edna Brill, sixth grade,

Jeffersonville, phosphorus; Evelyn

MacDonald, eighth grade, Morrisville, x-ray; Helen Maloney, seventh grade,

Hyde Park, shellac; Helen Vosburgh, seventh grade, Elmore Pond, vacuum;

Mildred Fortier, seventh grade, Morrisville, not spelled down. In the written contest, Mildred Fortier received 100 percent and Helen Vosburgh 96 percent.
